Books from the Baptistry

As part of our commitment to being an inclusive Church the DCC have decided to change the use of the Baptistry from being a library to being a calm room for people to use during services. It may be used by neurodivergent people who can find large numbers of people and noise overwhelming and need a quiet space, it could also be used by all kinds of other people. The space will also be a useful meeting room for small groups during the week. In order to repurpose it we need to remove the library which has not been well used for a number of years. The books are being moved into the church porch prior to being appropriately disposed of. Please help yourself to any books you would like in the next couple of weeks before they move on. It would be lovely if you would make a donation to St Mary's if you take one or more using the giving machine in the porch.

HYMNS11.15am

She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
Hovering on the chaos of the world's first day;
She sighs and she sings, mothering creation,
Waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

She wings over earth, resting where she wishes,
Lighting close at hand or soaring through the skies;
She nests in the womb, welcoming each wonder,
Nourishing potential hidden to our eyes.
She dances in fire, startling her spectators,
Waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned;
She weans and inspires all whose hearts are open,
Nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained.

For she is the Spirit, one with God in essence,
Gifted by the Saviour in eternal love;
She is the key opening the scriptures,
Enemy of apathy and heavenly dove.

ANTHEMS9.30am

Draw us in the Spirit's tether, for when humbly in your name, two or three are met together, you are in the midst of them; alleluia, alleluia! Touch we now your garment's hem.

As disciples used to gather in the name of Christ to sup, then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup, alleluia, alleluia! So now bind our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of you, that by caring, helping, giving, we may be disciples true. Alleluia, alleluia! we will serve with faith anew. — Percy Dearmer (1867–1936)

6.30pm

Loquebantur variis linguis Apostoli magnalia Dei, prout Spiritus Sanctus dabat eloqui illis, alleluia. Repleti sunt omnes Spiritu Sancto, et coeperunt loqui, prout Spiritus Sanctus dabat eloqui illis, alleluia.

Responsory at Matins for Pentecost
The Apostles spoke in many languages of the great works of God, as the Holy Spirit gave them the gift of speech, alleluia. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak, as the Holy Spirit gave them the gift of speech, alleluia.
